

Declaration of California Prop 65 Conformance

Incipio Group, LLC. (Incipio) hereby declares that, to its knowledge as of the date of this document, the products listed on this page conform to the requirements of California Proposition 65 (California's Safe Drinking Water and Toxic Enforcement Act, codified at Cal. Health & Safety Code §25249.5 et seq.) and do not require clear and reasonable because they do not contain any substance known to the State of California to cause cancer or reproductive toxicity, and/or the amount of substance does not exceed the safe harbor level established by the State of California.

Proposition 65 obligates any person, in the course of doing business, to provide a clear and reasonable warning if a product sold in the State of California contains any substance known to the State of California to cause cancer or reproductive toxicity. The latest update to the list of substances was on May 25, 2018 and was retrieved on October 4, 2018.

This declaration is based on Incipio's understanding of the requirements of the California Prop 65 and knowledge of the materials that go into its products. Incipio bases its knowledge on information provided by contractor manufacturers and suppliers. Incipio continues to take steps to obtain accurate information from suppliers but may or may not have conducted destructive testing or chemical analysis on incoming materials to verify material composition.
